Burra SES members receive awards

Three members of the Burra SES Unit have received awards for their long service.

Unit Manager Bruce Gundersen and Andrew Shepley have received five year service certificates while Wendy Williams received a National Medal for 15 years service.

The awards were made recently by SES General Manager David Carman at a special presentation at the unit.

SES District Officer Mid North Sue Gage congratulated the trio for receiving the awards.

"Together they have provided over 25 years of service in helping look after their local community," Ms Gage said.

Mr Carman said he wished to thank Bruce, Andrew and Wendy for their dedication and commitment.

"While all three have made a contribution the efforts of Wendy deserve special mention," Mr Carman said.

"As an SES volunteer she has made many personal sacrifices in the interests of community safety," he added.
